

INSTRUCTIONAL SOCCER PROGRAM

with Dave Fernandez

Vetta Sports O'Fallon is proud to sponsor this skills program with Dave Fernandez. Dave Fernandez will conduct this program for both boys & girls in grades 1st through 4th. The program will consist of eight (8) 55-minute sessions on Monday evenings.

About the program . . .

This soccer skills program is designed to exhibit to young players the enjoyment of playing the great game of soccer. Whether it should be a young beginner or a more experienced youth player, the program is designed to teach the game in a fun, enjoyable, and age-appropriate environment.

About the Director . . .

Dave Fernandez is the Director of Player Development & Coaching Education for BFC. He is nationally recognized for his ability to teach and demonstrate soccer skills and techniques to aspiring young players of all ages. He has been a director of player development and youth soccer coach for 24 years. As an educator of the game and skills clinician, he has been called upon repeatedly to demonstrate his unique ability to teach and control a soccer ball and is one of the most respected and knowledgeable youth instructors in the area.
